Scheduled for September 15-18, on Augusta Boulevard between Western Avenue and Oakley Boulevard, the annual St. Helen Festival will feature carnival rides; Eastern European, Latin, and American music; children's entertainment; food concessions; and a beer garden.

Target Audience: St. Helen School and Church draws families from the Latino, Eastern European, Anglo, and African-American communities in the West Town neighborhoods of Wicker Park/Bucktown, Ukrainian Village/East Village, and Humboldt Park. The St. Helen Festival will be a family-oriented event with entertainment structured to appeal to these audiences. We expect visitors ranging in age from 2 to 102! The estimated attendance for the festival is 1,000+ per day.
